

Teaching Like Jesus!
Dr. Christopher J. Betner

Teaching is at its core an stewardship of information relayed from a source to a recipient. The Effectiveness of the teaching cannot be measured simply by the accuracy of the information, nor the wealth of the repository from which the teacher is able to draw from, but rather the true test of the efficacy of teaching is found in the comprehension of the hearer! -Dr. Christopher J. Betner

Jesus was the Master Teacher, lets look at 4 elements of Jesus Teaching in the Script that we can employ today.
